A maximum of 30 semester hours may be earned through CLEP and DANTES testing combined. The student will need written permission from his/her advisor (for traditional students) or the Registrar's Office (for accelerated degree completion students) in order to take the exam. Credit will be received as pass/fail, and no hours attempted or quality points will be computed in the examinee's quality point ratio. A student may not receive credit for a CLEP/DANTES exam after college course work has been attempted in the same area.
